I spent my ERASMUS year at the University of Economics in Bratislava and it was a good choice. It was the best year of my studies. I could choose from a wide range of interesting courses and lessons and learn a lot there. I've also improved my English. I made friends from all around Europe and the world. If I could I would continue for another year.

FACILITIES AND STUDENT LIFE

- The main campus in Bratislava (Petržalka) is a modern complex which meets the demanding requirements that are necessary for teaching and research, as well as for catering, accommodation and the physical activities of students. Lecture halls, classrooms, laboratories, computer rooms, special language classrooms, library, bookshops etc. are available for all students.
- The University provides accommodation for its students in dormitories situated directly on the campus, just off the campus and throughout the city. It is able to house approximately 3,500 students. The quality of accommodation is of standard level or higher standard level (4-1 bed per room). From the dormitories outside the main campus there are good transport connections to the main campus.
- Student catering is provided on the main campus in a self-service dining hall with a wide selection of hot meals. There are also several cafeterias and snack bars with fast food, as well as vending machines with hot and cold drinks.
- The Buddy system is a student organisation that helps new students from abroad to become used to life in Bratislava.
- The Slovak Economic Library has a wide collection of books, periodicals, e-books, e-journals and databases. Computer rooms throughout the University are used for the teaching process and they are available to students for individual work as well. The whole campus is covered by wi-fi access points, enabling students to go online wherever they are on campus.
- Students can take part in a wide range of physical activities offered by the University in its residential and other sports facilities (football, tennis, table tennis, swimming, aqua aerobic, indoor football, volleyball, basketball, handball, badminton, skating, inline-skating, floor-ball, aerobics, step-aerobics, fit ball-aerobics, bodywork, power-yoga, pilates, fitness bodybuilding). In summer and in winter, training camps are organized (in winter – downhill and cross-country skiing, snowboarding; in summer - hiking, rafting and camping).
- Students can join AIESEC, the world's largest youth organization, which is present in over 2,100 universities in 110 countries. Focused on providing a platform for the development of youth leadership capabilities, AIESEC offers young people the opportunity to participate in international student exchange and internship programmes, experience leadership and participate in a global learning environment.

Teachers are highly qualified and helpful. This has made University of Economics in Bratislava a highly reputable and popular University. Graduates and exchange students return home with a great knowledge applicable everywhere. The city is really peaceful and people are kind and friendly. Personally, I can recommend this University with its high educational standards and friendly atmosphere. Bratislava is the right place for you!

The six months I studied at the UEBA was a great time for me. I got the opportunity to receive an excellent education, with amazing teachers. All classrooms were well equipped. If you don't speak Slovak at all, like me, the school has a great "buddy" system that helps you in all you need until you get totally accustomed. It was my first time in Europe, my first time I saw snow... Altogether, it was a wonderful experience for me. If I have the chance, I will take it again. For those interested in business studies, the University of Economics in Bratislava is a wonderful option.

I spent one unique exchange semester in Slovakia. The University of Economics in Bratislava provides high quality education, competitive environment and various activities for stimulating creativity and entrepreneurship. The University gave me inspiration for future achievements and I met people who contributed to my personal development. I enjoyed the way the study process was organized and the variety of courses I could choose among. The University has a modern vision and ensures up to date teaching approaches because the fast changing business conditions are undoubtedly taken into consideration. Its students demonstrated leadership skills, interest in the issues discussed and commitment. The professors were remarkable professionals who made the topics understandable and the lectures intriguing. I am extremely happy I had the opportunity to become part of the wonderful study atmosphere the University offers and greatly appreciate the friends I made! My stay in the capital of the Slovak Republic remains an unforgettable experience and I would recommend the University of Economics in Bratislava to every ambitious young person in search of knowledge and adventures.

Two years of master studies at the University of Economics in Bratislava were unforgettable lesson for me. I attended many interesting courses and I found teachers to be experts in their fields. Moreover, they were professional and helpful in a case of any questions, discussions and projects. My education was not limited only to theoretical lectures. I appreciated very much the possibility of practical trainings and projects. Anyone coming to Slovakia must be aware of one important issue, namely the Slovak hospitality and kindness. I have to admit I experienced it almost at every step. I strongly believe that the University of Economics in Bratislava widens perspectives ...

I got a scholarship for ERASMUS at the University of Economics in Bratislava. It was a pleasure to meet new friends from different countries with different cultural backgrounds. Living and learning together in an international atmosphere was a great experience for me. Small groups of 15-25 students attended one course so that a nice and productive atmosphere determined the lectures. All in all I really enjoyed my time in Bratislava.
