

Are you looking for something special? Take this opportunity! Wimdu will be Europe's leading marketplace for private accommodation, founded and supported by Rocket Internet (www.rocket-internet.de). Over the past years, Rocket has established many successful international Internet companies, by providing them with both capital as well as operative support. Among them are some of the most prominent recent projects, such as Groupon, Zalando, eDarling and now Wimdu.

For our office in Bratislava we are looking for several

Internship (m/f) in Business Development

Your tasks:

- You are right in the middle of something BRAND-NEW, supporting the team from scratch as well as providing hands-on support to our heads of departments
- Partake in the decisions-making of the day-to-day business. Analysis of competitors, tools and markets, and cut those results down to the main facts
- Be in charge of your own projects within the business development department

Your profile:

- You are currently studying economics, business sciences or any marketing-related degree; career changers are also welcome
- Proactive and dedicated style of work, entrepreneurial mindset
- You like thinking out of the box to build and design something big?
- Good command of written and spoken English

Our offer:

- You will become part of a highly professional and entrepreneurial environment
- You will contribute to the development of a fast growing startup
- You will benefit from flexible structures, flat hierarchies and motivated and talented colleagues
- You will take over responsibility from the first day
- You will have the opportunity to add your own valuable input and bring in your own ideas
- You will receive an attractive compensation
- Start date is as soon as possible

We look forward to receiving your application (including earliest starting date) via email! If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact our country manager Gergo Kalcsics (gergo.kalcsics@wimdu.com).