

GREETINGS!

We are pleased to welcome you to our Pedagogical Course.

The course is run as a series of collaborative seminars and workshops, with input from experienced economists and educators, grounded in economics education literature. The workshops model and practice teaching strategies, and provide opportunities for discussion of how the main principles of modern Economics teaching relate to your specific teaching contexts.

We look forward to meeting all of you and we hope that you will find the events interesting and useful.

Your research presentation is an opportunity for you to prepare effective slides and practice your communication skills in a condensed form that requires clarity and precision. This is a useful skill which translates to teaching and many other professional contexts. A great deal of information can be delivered in 3 minutes, if it is carefully planned. We look forward to hearing about your ideas!
